CHRISTMAS SEVENTEEN YEARS AGO IN CLIFTON

(Thursday, December 25th, 1902)
Dr. Fales is sick at his Ora residence with pneumonia.

The Era wishes its many readers a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Billy Hamilton will give a big-turkey shoot at the base ball grounds. Manager Jake Abrahams of the Clifton Hotel, has "spread himself" on his Christmas menu. It will eclipse that of any hotel in Arizona.

Big Jim Smith lost a valuable horse last week—drowned in the Frisco river. The wagon was loaded with scrap iron, and completely disappeared under the quick sand.

Jim Pencil, a 49er came in this week from Searchlight, Nevada which he thinks is the next Cripple Creek of the West.

Everhardy and Slaughter, yesterday received fifty head of "Christmas beef" cattle from the ranch of Marc Solenburger, of Nuderosa, about one hundred miles from Clifton.

General Manager James Colquhoun, of the A. C. Co., has been confined to his residence for the past two weeks with typhoid fever.

The Era was presented with a handsome cake Christmas by the Clifton Bakery.

We sell famous Walk-Over Shoes for $3.50. Elbie S. Smith.

The new school in South Clifton will be opened early next month.

A new time card goes into effect on the A. & N. M. Sunday next, the train leaving Clifton at 7:30 a. m. and arriving at 6:05 p. m.

Louis Snyder was tried before Justice Boyles Monday last on a charge of shooting cattle, belonging to Mrs. Flannigan of the Blue.

Sheriff Jim Parks spent yesterday in Clifton.

Wm. Whipple, who is attending the University at Tucson, is home for the holidays.

Dick Lakeman is now at the Hot Springs, Arkansas, where he is taking a course of baths hoping thereby to regain his health.

Mrs. Hugh Williams left Tuesday for Deming to spend the holidays with her parents, Colonel and Mrs. Hudson. P. P. Greer, cashier of the First National Bank returned Saturday last from California.

16,000 ARIZONA BRANDS GONE OUT OF EXISTENCE

Phoenix, Dec. 14—Closing today of the period for accepting brand registrations found 5000 livestock brands re-registered in the office of Edward W. Stephens, secretary of the state livestock sanitary board. A complete registration had been effected. Twenty-one thousand brands were on the old books. Only 5000 are now recognized as being "alive".

It had been realized that thousands of brands had lapsed through death of owners or their departure from the state. Registration period really closed last night, but Secretary Stephens had sent out word he would consider applications placed in the mails by midnight last night. About $3000 was collected in brand back taxes antedating 1912.
